

Claudette makes a little face at Claude as Claude is scarfing down more food. He doesn't notice Claudette making the face.

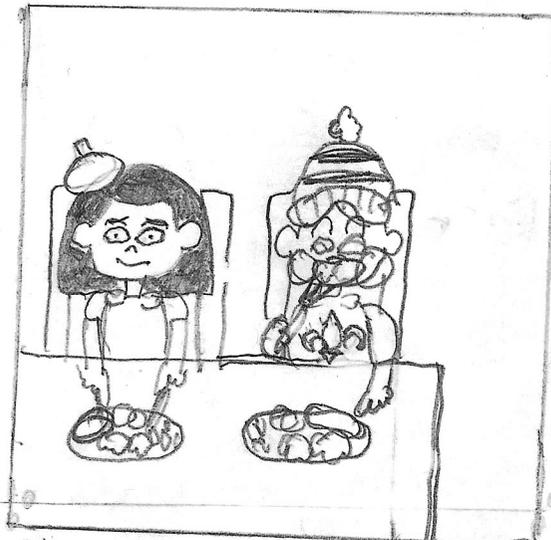

Claudette looks back at the viewer and forces an awkward smile. She says, "As you can see, Claude is really enjoying the food" and talks about what they're eating.

Claude says that he "could eat grand-pères anytime and anywhere", referring to the grand-pères dumplings.

Claudette giggles and says "This is the only context in which saying that is okay".

Claude begins to laugh with his mouth full of food.

Camera cuts to close shot of Claude guffawing with food mush visible in mouth. Shot lasts 3 seconds.
